Important Traffic Alert for NCAA Championship. Drivers are being advised of heavy traffic expected on the Loop 101 from Northern Avenue to Camelback Road in the afternoon of Saturday, March 28. The NCAA tournament will begin sometime between 1:30 p.m. and 6 p.m. and a concert at the Arena begins at 7 p.m. Message signs will be posted on the freeway to indicate suggested exits. Basketball traffic is encouraged to exit Bethany Home Road and concert traffic should exit Glendale Ave. Heavy traffic is also anticipated on the surface streets in and around the Glendale Sports and Entertainment District.

95th Avenue west of the stadium between Bethany Home Road and Maryland Avenue will be closed to vehicle traffic. Glendale Police will be directing traffic to establish a safe and steady traffic flow. Follow traffic signs for direction. For complete traffic information, visit www.glendalesgotgame.com

Final 3 Games Spring Training Special. Camelback Ranch is offering special 2-for-1 tickets to the last three games at Camelback Ranch on March 30, 31 and April 1. Click here for a ticket voucher that can be printed and brought to the Camelback Ranch Glendale box office. This offer is good for any ticket except the Home Plate Club. Residents Appointed to Serve on Boards and Commissions. The Glendale City Council has appointed several residents to serve on advisory boards and commissions. Congratulations to the following Barrel residents: Susan Jernigan (vice chair) – Community Development Advisory Committee and Becky Shady (vice chair) – Historic Preservation Commission.

Glendale's 18 boards and commissions assist the City Council in making important policy decisions that impact the community. These volunteer citizen advisory groups research, study and discuss specific Glendale projects and issues and then forward their recommendations to the City Council. Board and commission members must reside in Glendale. To request an application to serve on a city advisory group, call the Council Office at 623-930-2249 or visit www.glendaleaz.com/boardsandcommissions.

City of Glendale - Get Your Green On! The city of Glendale Water Conservation Office invites you to attend the 2009 Glendale Green Festival featuring the SRP Water Conservation Expo from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday, March 28. This family-oriented free event is a great opportunity for people of all ages to learn about water and energy efficiency and other green practices. The festival will feature informative displays and booths, green vendors, landscape classes, green-living workshops, free giveaways and a Family Zone powered by Radio Disney with all kinds of fun and games for all!

The SRP Water Conservation Expo and Green Workshops will be located at the Glendale Main Library's Xeriscape Demonstration Garden, 5959 W. Brown Street and the landscape classes and green vendor booths located nearby at the Fruit Packing Shed at Sahuaro Ranch Park, 9802 North 59th Avenue. Learn to be Money Smart with Upcoming Library Programs. When times are tough, it is more important than ever to be savvy about your money—no matter how much you have. With that goal in mind, Glendale Public Library received a grant to offer free classes for teens and adults on a variety of financial literacy topics. Classes will be offered at all three libraries; the Glendale Community Center, near downtown Glendale; and at Luke Air Force Base (for members of the Luke community). The program kicks off in April, with the 2009 classes finishing in November. The sessions repeat in 2010. Click here for more information.
